

Weekend Message on August 1, 2021

DISCUSS

1. Where are you on this scale: building new relationships, rebuilding existing relationships, or connecting others to relationships? What's your next step? Who is one person you can invite to Circle next week?
2. In your life, what are you preparing for? What are you attracting? Is this what you want to attract?
3. As a believer, you are God's temple and His Spirit dwells within you. How are you positioning yourself to receive "the more" God has available for you?
